

I am vigorously opposed to the use of cell phone use aboard airborne aircraft. It means additional noise and intrusion in a confined space and will be a major annoyance to the vast numbers of people who have no way to escape.